Start your engines! The second annual "The Gulfstream: Drive to Provide" will take place Feb. 16 at The Lake Pavilion in downtown West Palm Beach.

Gulfstream Region Porsche Club of America will host the waterfront fundraiser that benefits Gulfstream Goodwill Industries' homeless prevention services.

The event begins at 5 p.m. and guests at the event will be able to bid on one-of-a-kind artwork, "speed painted" that evening by renowned artist, Michael Israel.

Gulfstream Region Porsche Club of America will host the waterfront fundraiser. It will benefit Gulfstream Goodwill Industries' homeless prevention services. Stephen Grossman, General Manager for Braman Motorcars, will be the 2024 Honorary Chair.

The festivities will include 40 Porsches on display from private collections, along with silent and live auctions.

At a pre-party event Jan. 24, Michael Israel will be speed painting the hood of a Porsche Cayenne at Braman Motorcars. The vehicle will be on display in the Braman showroom for three weeks, before it's auctioned at The Gulfstream main event.

“Gulfstream Goodwill Industries is changing lives through housing, training, education and employment, while assisting people with disabilities, who are homeless and have other barriers to employment to become self-sufficient, working members of the South Florida community,” said Keith Kennedy, president and CEO for Gulfstream Goodwill Industries.

Gulfstream Goodwill Industries is a private, nonprofit agency serving Palm Beach, Martin, St. Lucie, Indian River and Okeechobee counties for more than 55 years.

Tickets for “The Gulfstream: Drive to Provide” are $100 per person or $356 per couple for VIP access. The VIP tickets are limited and have pre-party benefits, including access to balcony lounge, upgraded cocktails and champagne, a private hors d’oeuvres station, premium view of the Michael Israel painting performance and a Michael Israel collectible, with a certificate of authenticity. The main event benefits include champagne and whiskey upgrades with open bar, meet and greet with Michael Israel and leadership of Porsche Club of the Americas, Gulfstream Goodwill Industries and an exclusive VIP gift bag.

Reggae-rock group headlines in hometown

On Feb. 3, the reggae-rock group, Artikal Sound System, is headlining its biggest show ever, performing in their hometown at The Amphitheatre at Old School Square, in Downtown Delray Beach.

Artikal Sound System’s stop in Delray Beach is part of the band’s Cowboys vs. Aliens 2024 Tour, which features special guests Tunnel Vision and Joey Harkum.

In November, the group dropped their reggae-infused “Happy Holidays” album. At this upcoming concert, they’ll perform songs from their 2022 album, “Welcome to Florida,” in addition to newly released music.

Founded in 2012 by Chris Montague, on guitar, and Fabian Acuña, on bass, Artikal Sound System honed their chops backing a series of Caribbean singers. Along the way, the boys picked up keys player Christopher Cope, and the heavy-footed drummer Adam Kampf, before trying something a little sonically different with their neighbor, female vocalist

Logan Rex.

After nearly a decade of playing together, they've amassed a loyal following. Their jazz-influenced singer dances around, both lyrically and literally. The band says they hope to convey the sound of friendship, hard work, imagination and a message of love. They also want to emphasize the importance of having a good time.

Artikal Sound System will be playing from 6:30 p.m. to 10:30 p.m., rain or shine. The gates open at 5:30 p.m. General admission tickets are available for $15. Food vendors will be on site. The Amphitheatre at Old School Square is located at 51 N. Swinton Avenue, Delray Beach. Parking is available in the Old School Square garage. Rock Around the Block in West Palm Beach

It's not a rumor! On Saturday, Jan. 20, "True Rumours: Fleetwood Mac Tribute" will take place to honor the legendary band. The concert is free and starts at 7 p.m. in the Warehouse District in West Palm Beach.

From 6-9 p.m., you can rock around the whole area and explore all there is to offer at the Warehouse District, 1401 Clare Avenue, from Grandview Public Market to restaurants to specialty retailers and shops.

Starting at 11 a.m., daily, complimentary valet parking is available on Elizabeth and Clare Avenues.

The Warehouse District spans 84,890 square feet across three city blocks and is home to a best-in-class food hall and creative offices, as well as Steam Horse Brewing, a local brewery and distillery. Tenants include Grandview Public Market, Steel Tie Spirits Co., Gypsy Life Surf Shop, Palm Beach Squash Club, Isla and Sola Salon Studios.
