

ACCENT + NOTABLES

A St. Barts property in Cuvée's inventory of vacation rentals. COURTESY OF CUVÉE

Book a castle or an island with these websites

Aimee Heckel

Special to USA TODAY 10Best

Luxury travel is evolving beyond the confines of fancy hotels and resorts. Companies specializing in luxurious vacation rentals are claiming a stake in the marketplace – many of them offering high-end concierge services that give world-class resorts a run for their money.

Ever dream of living in a castle or vacationing on your own private island? Here are seven vacation rental companies ready to make your dreams come true.

Moving Mountains

Moving Mountains focuses on luxury vacation rentals in the majestic mountains of Colorado – specifically Vail, Beaver Creek, Breckenridge, and Steamboat Springs. These vacation rentals come with attentive concierge services that can help you plan day trips, stock your pantry with groceries, or set you up with a private chef – a la internationally reputable J&J Personal Chefs, which has a long roster of famous clients.

See LUXURY, Page 5D

A scarf style introduced by Acne Studios has spawned one of the biggest winter gear fads in recent memory. YE FAN/THE NEW YORK TIMES

Why a rainbow-check scarf is all the rage

Misty White Sidell The New York Times

The rainbow-check pattern is hard to miss. It can be spotted on scarves in cities across the world, including some where temperatures rarely approach freezing. Those scarves come in many palattes, and they can be purchased for hundreds of dollars at department stores or for tens of dollars from

See SCARF, Page 6D

Notables

SOCIETY | CHARITY | STYLE

GL Homes VP of Community Relations Sarah Alsofrom, Literacy Coalition of Palm Beach County CEO Kristin Calder and GL Homes COO Marcie DePlaza at Valencia Grand in Boynton Beach with books GL Homes donated to the Literacy Coalition. [TRACEY BENSON]

Read and react: Literacy Coalition of Palm Beach County's popular fundraiser is one to bookmark

The 33rd Annual Love of Literacy Luncheon will feature best-selling journalist-turned author Geraldine Brooks and raise money to further the organization's mission to raise literacy rates in our community.

By Steve Dorfman • Notables Staff Writer

Be it Taylor Swift (“I wouldn’t be a songwriter if it wasn’t for books that I loved as a kid”), Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis (“There are many little ways to enlarge your child’s world; love of books is the best of all”) or Dr. Seuss (“The more that you read, the more things you will know. The more that you learn, the more places you’ll go”), there’s no shortage of uber successful folks who long ago learned that reading truly is fundamental.

And that, of course, includes the good folks at the Literacy Coalition of Palm Beach County, who will be hosting their 33rd Annual Love of Literacy Luncheon at 11:30 a.m. on April 11 at the Kravis Center for the Performing Arts in West Palm Beach.

“We are thrilled to celebrate literacy with many business and community leaders in the county at this inspiring event,” said Kristin Calder, CEO of the Literacy Coalition of Palm Beach County. “There is a great literacy need in our community, and support from all who attend goes a long way to helping the Coalition provide and support life-changing literacy programs.”

See LITERACY, 2D

New York Times bestselling and Pulitzer Prize-winning author Geraldine Brooks headlines the 2024 Love of Literacy Luncheon. [RANDI BAIRD]

NOTABLES COVER STORIES highlight local businesses, philanthropies, charities and individuals. Stories are sponsored. To be featured, contact Notables Editor Krystian von Speidel at notables@pbpost.com.

Notable this week

Mark Elhilow, Frances Fisher, Patrick McNamara [CAPEHART]

Palm Health Foundation
Organization awards $687,000 in scholarships.
NOTEWORTHY NEWS, 2D

Joan McCabe, Karl Eisleben
[TRACEY BENSON PHOTOGRAPHY]

Gulfstream Goodwill Industries
2nd Annual ‘Drive to Provide’ event raised funds to support homelessness prevention and disability services.
SOCIAL STUDIES, 3D

SPONSORED CONTENT

SOCIAL STUDIES

Gulfstream Goodwill Industries crosses the finish line at 2nd Annual ‘Drive to Provide’

Friday, Feb. 16 – The Lake Pavilion, West Palm Beach

Erin Kozlowski, Mo Reza and Devorah Kermisch with a $50,000 check for Gulfstream Goodwill. [TRACEY BENSON PHOTOGRAPHY]

Suzanne and Peter Krones

Steven Graves

Audrey Lynn, Ron Brooks

The second annual The Gulfstream: Drive to Provide took place on Feb. 16 at The Lake Pavilion in downtown West Palm Beach. Hosted by the Gulfstream Region Porsche Club of America, the event supported Gulfstream Goodwill Industries' (GGI) homelessness prevention and disability services. The benefit was attended by more than 200 people and was chaired by Stephen Grossman, general manager for Braman Motorcars.

"Thanks to your support, we're able to continue making a difference in the lives of those facing homelessness in South Florida," said GGI President and CEO Karen Davidson. "The funds raised will significantly aid in our mission to provide housing, training, education and employment opportunities to the most vulnerable members of our community."

The benefit included 40 Porsches from private collections, silent and live auctions, entertainment from DJ Sage, and gourmet fare from GGI's Career Academy of the Palm Beaches. A highlight of the night was auctioning a Porsche Cayenne hood, uniquely adorned with speed-painted artwork by internationally acclaimed artist Michael Israel.

Sponsors included presenting sponsor Braman Porsche West Palm Beach, Gardens Wealth Management, Florida Insurance Trust, The Jorgensen Foundation, Abaco Automotive, Fantastic Finishes, GL Homes, Gunster, K2 Motorcars, Legends Radio, One Digital, Peter and Suzanne Krones, Joan McCabe and Karl Eisleben, Nason Yeager, Supercar Week and WPBF.

"Gardens Wealth Management is proud to help bring this event to life and raise funds to aid the homelessness crisis plaguing our community," said Michael Cowan, GGI Vice Chair and Gardens Wealth Management Managing Principal. "More than 1,500 people call the streets of Palm Beach County home every night. Donations are critical to help provide a hand up, not a handout to our community's most vulnerable."

For more information on GGI, visit goggi.org or call 561-848-7200.

Phil DiComo, Karen Davidson

Michael Cowan, Marty Zipern

Kyle Rathbun, David Schnorr

Clive Stuart-Findlay, Katie Colon

Linda and Barry Paraizo

MUSIC BY HARRY WARREN
LYRICS BY AL DUBIN
BOOK BY MICHAEL STEWART & MARK BRAMBLE

CELEBRATING OUR
20th ANNIVERSARY

MARCH 12 - 31, 2024

SPONSORED BY:
JANA & KEN KAHN / LRP MEDIA GROUP
DEE DEE, MARTY & DOUGLAS JAFFE
AS TRUSTEES OF THE JEFF HUNTER CHARITABLE TRUST
JOHN OSHER
MARJORIE YASHAR & GERRY GIBIAN

DON'T MISS THE LAST SHOW OF THE SEASON!

SEASON SPONSOR
TCH Tampa General Hospital | USF Health
VISIT: JUPITERTHEATRE.ORG | BOX OFFICE: (561) 575-2223

Cultural Council | THE PALM BEACHES | SPONSORS AS OF 3/1/24