Gulfstream Goodwill Industries welcome three new members to the Board of Directors

August 13, 2024

The President and CEO for Gulfstream Goodwill Industries Karen Davidson announced the addition of three new board members.

Doug Campbell, Tim Reever and Raymond Zucaro have been appointed to help further GGI's mission of changing lives through housing, training, education and employment, while assisting people with disabilities and other employment barriers to become self-sufficient members of the community.

“Gulfstream Goodwill Industries is thrilled to welcome Doug, Tim and Raymond to the Board,” says Davidson. “These individuals have a passion for helping our neighbors in need and their combined career expertise will propel us forward to empower more lives and create lasting change in our five-county service area.”

Doug Campbell

Doug Campbell, a resident of Stuart, is the current President of Campbell Real Estate Advisory Group, Inc. He founded the Miami Learning Experience School, a school for children and adults with intellectual disabilities. He is the Co-Founder of the Success Sailing program at the US Sailing Center of Martin County, a program that teaches persons with intellectual disabilities how to sail a boat with one-on-one mentoring. Campbell is an advocate for all people with intellectual and developmental disabilities and is a supporter of the Special Olympics in Martin County.

He is the former President of Florida Building Service and the Former Executive Director of Cushman & Wakefield of Florida. Campbell graduated from the University of Puget Sound and the University of Washington/Wharton School Bridge on Entrepreneurial Studies. He also graduated from the U.S. Army JFK Special Warfare and Leadership School in Washington D.C. and was a U.S. Army Special Forces Operator (Green Beret).

Tim Reever has over 40 years of experience in the radio broadcasting and advertising industry. He has managed several radio stations in Fort Lauderdale and Palm Beach and is currently the General Manager of Legends Radio 100.3 FM.

Tim Reever

He is originally from New England, where he managed radio stations in both Providence and Boston. He graduated from the University of New Hampshire with a Bachelor of Arts in English/Journalism, where he was also a top competitor in track and cross country. In addition to Gulfstream Goodwill Industries, Reever also serves as a Board member and Officer for the Executives Association of the Palm Beaches. He is also a member of the 2025 class for Leadership Palm Beach. He resides in Juno Beach with his wife and has three grown sons.

Raymond Zucaro

Raymond Zucaro has nearly 30 years of experience in the investment management industry and is the Chief Investment Officer at RVX Asset Management, an emerging market-focused boutique investment firm. He is responsible for the firm's overall macro views and investment strategy. Prior to joining RVX, he co-founded SW Asset Management LLC in 2009, where he was a Managing Partner and Portfolio Manager. In 2015, SW sold its investment management contracts to Salient Partners. Zucaro received his Master of Business Administration and Bachelor of Arts degrees in Spanish and Psychology from Temple University. He also earned the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) designation. Zucaro is fluent in Spanish and has working knowledge of Portuguese and Russian. He currently resides in Miramar.

Gulfstream Goodwill Industries is a private, non-profit agency serving Palm Beach, Martin, St. Lucie, Indian River and Okeechobee counties for over 55 years. It is the largest homelessness provider in its five-county region and the largest health and human services organization in its territory.
