vital funds that support our mission to inspire, educate and entertain through exceptional cultural experiences for all.”

The evening begins with a cocktail reception, followed by Scherzinger’s highly anticipated performance on the main stage of Dreyfoos Hall. Scherzinger is fresh off her 2025 Tony Award-winning stint in “Sunset Blvd.”

Guests will then step into the enchanted Gimelstob Ballroom for an immersive dinner experience curated by Kravis Events by Lessing’s Hospitality, featuring Guy Reuge, Chef Emeritus, before dancing late into the night to live music by Marcia Mitchell Music.

“At the Kravis Center, every performance is a chance to experience the extraordinary,” says William Meyer, Chairman Emeritus of the Kravis Center and Gala Co-Chair. “Supporting this special place helps spread inspiration and connection across our community. And, as always, this year’s Gala will feature an extraordinary special guest performer—this year, the incredible Nicole Scherzinger, whose remarkable vocals will add even more magic and excitement to the night.”

“The Conjuror’s Ball: An Evening of Illusion and Magic” is set for March 5, 2026, at the Raymond F. Kravis Center for the Performing Arts, West Palm Beach.

Tickets for the Black-tie Gala are $1,500 per person. For more, visit kravis.org/gala or call 561-651-4244. ■
